RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the City of Somerset is in the process of determining the need for a new facility for the provision of emergency medical services (EMS) or other property needs of the city; and

WHEREAS, the Housing Authority of Somerset Board of Commissioners has authorized that the first priority for sale of surplus property on Hail Knob Road between the Housing Authority office and Greystone Manor be given to the City of Somerset prior to public auction; and

WHEREAS, the Housing Authority has offered to sale the property to the City at cost of previous improvements; and

WHEREAS, a committee of the City Council has met at the site and determined the site's suitability for a future EMS facility or other city facility needs.

NOW THEREFORE, the City Council hereby authorizes the purchase of the Hail Knob Road property from the Housing Authority for $125,000 with $62,500 of the purchase price being applied to the Housing Authority and $62,500 being applied to the Somerset Home Ownership Commission for investment in affordable housing in the City of Somerset.

Adopted this 23RD day of July, 2012.
